Diane Higdon shared this about the "His Name" design...

"This is my favorite pattern and I've done over 100 of them over the years. The woman who gave it to me is Martha Pilgrim.

Over 20 years ago, I was in the frame shop that belonged to a friend of mine and she always would let me go in the back to look at the cross stitches people brought in that were waiting to be framed. When I saw this piece, it took my breath away and I told her I had to have it. She told me she didn't think the design was published and gave me the name and phone number of the woman who brought it in. I called and then went to Martha's house and she told me that her nephew had designed it. She handed me the original and said I was welcome to copy it, which I did (and then brought it right back to her).

I especially like to stitch this design for churches and pastors because I feel like it sort of "links" our church with other churches. I also like to do them for missionaries"

Martha Pilgram has gone on missions trips all over the world and shared the pattern with others and wants as many people as possible to have it.

Diane Higdon: "I have done the original in shades of: blue, wine, green, lavender, and, I think, tan. I mostly make them in blues, wines, or greens, but I supposed you could do anything you want. I always use 3 shades of the same color but it would be fun to see how creative people are with the colors."
